

Kip Williams
Vice President, Sales

In June, 2010, Kip Williams joined Siemens Hearing Instruments, Inc. as Vice President of Sales. He is charged with growing both the independent and Government Services market segments in the United States.

With more than 20 years of sales and executive management experience, Kip has earned a solid reputation for generating new business and increasing market share by successfully introducing new products and services to the sales force.

Prior to joining Siemens, Kip served as Vice President for TESSCO Technologies, a leading distributor of wireless communication networks. During his tenure, he dramatically grew the company's business through sales and marketing programs designed to actively produce revenue while capitalizing on untapped markets.

Kip graduated from the University of Pennsylvania with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science.
