

AX6ARTISAPP - AXIOM Artis Applications for Customers

Course Number/Designator

AX6ARTISAPP

Course Description

The AXIOM Artis Applications Course for customers is a three-day class designed to provide an understanding of the necessary skills to manage applications for AXIOM Artis Card/Angio systems. Additionally, participants have the opportunity to meet other users and share their experiences and solutions to various challenges of catheterization lab. Ample time is allowed for questions and answers.

Upon completion of this course participants will be able to:

- Understand the basic operation of all of the Artis systems and have an overall basic knowledge of standard and optional features for the Artis.
- Turn the system on and off, have a basic knowledge of the table controls, c-arm controls, and the examination control console.
- The customer will have a basic knowledge of Perivision and Dynavision as well as optional software such as quantification and filming.
- Understand the Safety aspects using ARTIS systems
- Operate and understand the function of ARTIS systems (Exam Room and Control Room Console Overview)
- Understand exposure and fluoro modes (DR, DSA, CARD, PERI, DYNA, Roadmap, Overlay Reference, Automap), Patient Workflow, Image post-processing, Quantification (QCA, LVA), Dose management (CARE)
- Be able to trouble shoot basic technical problems and diagnose image quality and its' parameters
- Understand Organ programs, Networking, Data Archival and Filming

Audience

Axiom Artis Customers, Radiology Technologists and Clinicians responsible for operating the system.

Course/Skill Prerequisites

Successfully passed (AX0ARTISCU for VB22) web based training at www.siemens.com/wbt-artis

Course Information

- Classes begin at 8:30 AM each day and end at 5:00 PM.
- Tuition: US $2100 CE Credits: Submitted
- Registration: Fax a registration form (available online) to 1-919-468-7401 or call 1-800-888-SIEM (7436) opt 4.